fashionable patterns of Stoves and Grates, I would respectfully invite the citizens of the great Metropolis and of the surrounding country and towns, to call and see them; and in distributing their patronage, I would beg to remind them that my stock is large, and sell I must; and I am determined to regulate my prices to suit my customers, if not myself. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of a Cooking Stove to the American Air-Tight, considered the best in the amarket, and warranted to bake in the oven. My Grates are handsome in the extreme. Call and see; we will take pleasure in showing them, whether you buy or not. C. WOODWARD, Pa. av., between 10th and 11th sts.

GENERAL VAPOR BATH.

A DOPTED unanimously by Congress, through the strong recommendations of numerous United States Surgeons, and other eminent Physicians, as per testimonials. The apparatus, fixed, or portable; the position recumbent, therefore favorable to the debilitated, and to the safe, equal distribution of heat. The applications are naturetribution of heat. The applications are nature-aiding; from the potent epidemic antidote, sul-phur fume, (as shown in the United States Peni tentiary, and elsewhere,) so efficient in diseases tentiary, and elsewhere,) so efficient in diseases called mercurial; in rheumatic, cutaneous, &c.; to the most salutary of the operations of the farfamed Oriental Steam Bath, still used in Turkey—there lately studied by the undersigned, and found to be particularly serviceable to the organs of respiration. Instructions and rights for making and use furnished. Also, a powerful, but safely graduated Electro-galvanic and Magnetic machine, for nervous and other complaints. Applied at City Hall, east wing, first floor, (convenient for the lame,) No. 28, and at residence of sick. Probatum cet.

DR. AMATI'S ITALIAN VEGETABLE PANACEA, TONIC, AND APERIENT.—This remedy, composed entirely of vegetable ingredients, and totally free from any mineral substance, combining cathartic with cordial and strengthening powers, was originally discovered and prescribed by Dr. Amati, a celebrated physician, in most of the diseases of the abdominal regions—such as diarrhea, dysentery, bilious complaints, dyspepsia, and all other disorders of the liver, &c.

Knowing from experience that it operates in the most kindly and effectual manner in these cases, it is submitted as a remedy to those who may be attacked by the prevailing fatal scourge, and as a preventive to all who may be so fortunate as to escape its first insidious symptoms.

To be had wholesale and retail at Carusi's Music Saloon, Pennsylvania avenue, between 11th and 12th streets, and at the principal drug stores in the city of Washington, Georgetown, and Alexandria.
Pamphlets containing full directions for use, with many interesting certificates, accompany each bottic of the panacea. A very liberal discount to dealers. Orders from any part of the United States promptly attended to. All communications must

The publishers respectfully invite attention to the following eminent testimony to the excellence of this standard dictionary.

The execution of this Dictionary fully answers to its title. The Vocabulary is probably more comprehensive than that of all proceeding English Dictionaries united. Constant reference is made to authorities with respect to words newly introduced, and care is taken to note such as are technical, foreign, obsolete, provincial, or vulgar. The duced, and care is taken to note such as are technical, foreign, obsolete, provincial, or vulgar. The definitions are clear and exact, and those pertaining to technical and scientific terms are specially valuable to the general reader. The author has evidently bestowed great labor on production. His system of Notation, which is easily understood, and founded on a more complete analysis of the vowel sounds than we have elsewhere met with, together with his plan of exhibiting all the best English authorities in relation to words differently pronounced by different orthoepists, gives to this work important advantages as a Pronouncing Dictionary. In ORTHOGRAPHY he has made no arbitrary enanges, but where usage is various and fluctuating, he has aimed to be consistent, and to reduce to the same rules words of similar formation. The insertion of Grammatical forms and in flections of words to a much greater extent than then. The insertion of Grammatical forms and in flections of words to a much greater extent than they are given in other English Dictionaries, and the short critical notes on the orthography, the pronunciation, the grammatical form and construction, and the poculiar, technical, local, and American uses of words interspersed through the volume, give to this work much additional value. The center of Medical Construction of Medical Constructions and in give to this work much additional value. The cepious Yocabulary of Modern Geographical names, with their pronunciation, and a greatly enlarged and improved edition of Walker's Key to the pronunciation of Classical and Scripture proper names, are important appendages to the Dictionary. Eighteen months have passed since this Dictionary was published; and its already extensive use, both among cultivated English readers, and men of wide learning, affords good testimony of its merits. We confidently recommend it as containing an ample and careful view of the present state of our lan guage.

MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE AND FIRE IN-SURANCE COMPANY OF LOUISIANA. INCORPORATED IN APRIL 1849, AND DECLARED A Business of the Company confined to Life

Insurance only.

Permanent Fund by Act of Incorporation,

Permanent Fund by Act of Incorporation, $200,000.

Office No. 38 Camp Street, between Gravier and Common atreets, New Orleans.

This permanent fund to be invested as per charter for the benefit of the policy holders, in bonds and mortgages on unincumbered real estate valued at double the amount loaned thereon, and in stocks of the State and of the United States government. This company, being organized solely for the protection of the policy holders and their families against want and poverty, is in its operations a great national benevolent institution, conducted upon the most secure and solid principles, and affording, for a small annual sum, paid during life, a large and handsome legacy to widows and children after death.

All policy holders, whether for life or shorter terms, who continue the insurance till death, participate in the whole of the profits of the company. Creditors can insure the lives of debtors. A married woman can effect insurance on the life of her husband, for the sole benefit and use of herself and children, free from the claims of creditors.

BLACK WOOD'S MAGAZINE

And the British Quarterly Reviews.

PREMIUSE TO NEW SUSSCIEGES.

OWING to the late revolutions and counter revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet." the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle gr. and between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treatises to be furnished by the historian at a future day. The American Publishers, therefore, deem it proper to call renewed attention to these Periodicals, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW,
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE. In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately, though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three great parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical. "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory; the "Edinburgh Review," Whig, and Radical whose in the service of the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not oltra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge; it was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanns, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being, in fact, a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage by this combination of uniting in one work the best features of both as heretofore issued.

The above periodicals are reprinted in New York, incombisted on the grant and the parties of both as heretofore issued.

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

Published every Saturday, at 12] cents a Number, Yearly, in advance, $6.

BY E. LITTELL AND CO., BOSTON.

THIS work is conducted in the spirit of Littell's favorably received by the public for twenty years,) but as it is twice as large, and appears so often, we not only give spirit and freshness to it by many things which were excluded by a month's delay, but while thus extending our scope, and gathering a greater and more attractive variety, are able so to increase the solid and substantial part of our literary, historical, and political harvost, as fully to satisfy the wants of the American reader.

The elaborate and stately Essays of the Edinburgh, Quarterly, and other Reviews; and Blackwood's noble criticismson Poetry, his keen political Commentaries, highly wrought Tales, and vivid descriptions of rural and mountain scenery; and the contributions to Literature, History, and common life, by the segacious Spectator, the sparkling Examiner, the judicious Athenseum, the busy and mulastrious Literary Gazette, the sensible and comprehensive Britannia, the suber and respectable Christian Observer; these are intermixed with the Military and Naval reminiscences of the United Service, and with the best articles of the Dublin University, New Monthly, Fraser's, Tait's, Ainsworth's, Hood's, and Sporting Magazines, and of Chambers's admirable Journal. We do not consider it beneath our dignity to borrow wit and wisdom from Punch; and, when we think it good enough, make use of the thunder of The Times. We shall increase our variety by importations from the continent of Europe, and from the new growth of the British colonies.

The steamship has brought Europe, Asia, and Africa into our neighborhood, and will greatly multiply our connexions as merchants, travellers, and politicians, with all parts of the world; so that, much more than ever, it now becomes every intelligent American to be informed of the conditions and changes of foreign countries. And this not only because of their nearer connexion with our selections; and make it attractive to their wives and children. We believe that we can thus do some good in our day and generation, and hope to make the work indisponsable in every well-informed family. We say indispensable, because in this day of cheapliterature it is not possible to guard against the influx of what is bad in taste and vicious in morals, in any other way than by furnishing a sufficient supply of a healthy character. The mental and moral appetite must be gratified.

We hope, that by "winnowing the wheat from the chail," by providing abundantly for the imagination, and by a large collection of Biography, Voyages and Travels, distory, and more solid matter, we may produce a work which shall be popular, while at the same time it win sapire to raise the standard of public taste.

By-Lesters in commendation of the plan and execution of the work from Jurige Story, Chancellor Kent, Dr. Bethune, and Mesers. Jared Sparks, W. H. Prescett, George Bancroft, and George Ticknor, have been published in former advertisements.
